THE LITURGICAL WEEK

Jun 14 – The kingdom of God is like a mustard seed, which springs up and becomes the largest of plants, like a tender shoot from the cedar which will bear fruit and become a majestic cedar. So shall the just one flourish, like a cedar. As we walk by faith and not by sight, may our lives bear fruit in abundance.

Jun 15 – Trials have not diminished Paul's apostolic zeal for the Gentiles. Offer no resistance to injury.

Jun 16 – Let us praise the love of Jesus who made himself poor that we might become rich. Let us love as our heavenly Father loves us.

Jun 17 – Almsgiving and other deeds of loving service are expressions of thanks to God for his generosity and favor.

Jun 18 – Paul trusts in God despite opposition from Judeo-Christian missionaries. If we pardon others, our Father will pardon us.

Jun 19 – Delivered from all sorts of affliction, Paul stored up for himself an eternal treasure.

Jun 20 – Even in weakness, Paul lacks nothing, for he experiences the power of Christ. His whole life was directed toward the peace of God's kingdom.

PASTOR'S CORNER

As we begin our summer season and the year's long stretch of Ordinary Time, God seems to be a gardener. Trees and shoots and sprouts appear in both the first reading and the Gospel. Perhaps our prayer at the beginning of this growing season can be for God to help us to nurture the good seed of faith that has been planted in us, so that we can bear fruit for God's reign.

Can you not spend one hour with me?

Remember to sign in the book in the first pew.
