THE LITURGICAL WEEK

Jun 21 – In the midst of adversity, we need to trust in the saving presence of God who triumphs over the waters of the sea. In the midst of distress, let us turn to the Lord with faith, to him whom even the wind and the sea obey. He died and rose for our sake that we might live and not perish.

Jun 22 – God calls Abram to lead a people he has chosen as his own. Before criticizing others, examine first your own heart.

Jun 23 – We must love one another and learn to live in mutual peace and justice.

Jun 24 – Called from birth by the Lord, John matured in the Spirit and heralded the advent of the Messiah.

Jun 25 – Faith must be expressed in love. Hagar puts her faith in the Lord whose love is eternal.

Jun 26 – God blessed Abraham, promising an everlasting covenant with his posterity. A leper is cleansed by Christ, the healer.

Jun 27 – Because of sin, sickness and death have entered the world, but are overcome through the resurrection of Jesus. He hears the cry of those in need, healing the sick and raising the dead to life. He made himself poor that we might become rich.

PASTOR'S CORNER

Continuing with our Ordinary Time Sundays, we will hear from the Gospel of Mark almost exclusively until the end of the liturgical year. Mark's Gospel is the oldest and the shortest, and his writing is the most succinct of all the Gospels. Scholars hold that Mark chose to write about Jesus' life and teachings in order to deepen the faith of his community in the Cross and Resurrection. May our faith too be strengthened by Mark's writing as we move through the coming weeks in prayer and sacrament.

Can you not spend one hour with me?

Remember to sign in the book in the first pew.

THANK YOU

With sincere appreciation we would like to thank all our friends, family and communities for the outpouring of kindness shown to us and Dad during his life and now of his passing. Thank you to Fr. Jim Novotny, Fr. Jim Kramper, Fr. Joe Miksch, Lindsay Choirs and Jill Werner for the beautiful Mass of celebration. Thank you to Circle 9 for serving the lunch and Duesman Funeral Home in helping make the arrangements. We would also like to say "thank you" to the Veterans for their final salute. Dad truly enjoyed family, friends and life. In lieu of Thank You's, a Mass will be said on Sat, June 27. Thank you again and God bless each of you.
