THE LITURGICAL WEEK

Jul 5 – Jesus is met with misgivings and rejection by his own relations. Like them, we often resist the prophetic word because of an obstinacy of heart, rooted in a self-pride which must give way to weakness and powerlessness.

Jul 6 – The Lord promises to remain with Jacob and his descendants. Through various cures, the mission of Jesus is authenticated.

Jul 7 – Having encountered the presence of the divine, Jacob earns the right to enter Canaan. Jesus prays for laborers for the harvest.

Jul 8 – The sons of Jacob seek help from Joseph, their brother. Jesus chooses the Twelve and sends them forth to proclaim God's reign.

Jul 9 – Reconciliation between Joseph and his brothers takes place. Share God's love as gift.

Jul 10 – The migration of Jacob and his descendants to Egypt, a land of security, is described. In preaching the gospel, one may encounter opposition and persecution.

Jul 11 – Joseph and his brothers are reconciled and place their trust in God. Fear the one who can destroy the soul.

PASTOR'S CORNER

Today's Gospel is the origin of the saying, "A prophet is without honor in his own country." Perhaps you too have experienced rejection by those whom you think know you the best. It can be discouraging, even if you are fully confident in yourself. Certainly the Church has encountered opposition in the world, and even some within the Church. When that happens, we have Jesus as our model. Let us pray to him today for strength, whatever we may be facing.

Can you not spend one hour with me?

Remember to sign in the book in the first pew.

THANK YOU

Thank you for all the cards and visits after I broke my leg. It was truly appreciated. I'm not healed yet, but hope it comes soon.

Virgil Reichmuth

THANK YOU

Thank you to everyone who came in and had their picture taken for the Parish Directory. We appreciate you taking time to help us update our directory. If you did not come in to have your picture taken, your submitted picture (4x6 print or smaller or digital copy), $10, and a copyright release must be turned in to the rectory by Mon, Aug 3.

JC Camp Donations

Anyone interested in donations to help offset the cost of groceries for JC Camp can call Norma Preister at 402-563-4867 or drop your donation off at the rectory office. All donations are greatly appreciated. Groceries are extremely expensive and your generosity enables us to keep the cost of camp low and encourage kids to attend.

Craft Items Needed

JC Camp is looking for donations of craft items—tape, ribbon, sticky letters, jars, etc. Please leave items in the box marked "JC Camp" in back of church. Thank you.
