THE LITURGICAL WEEK

Aug 16 – Wisdom has prepared a banquet of food and wine, an image expressive of God's communion with us. For those who desire life, Jesus gives his own flesh and blood. Thus we shall be filled with the Spirit.

Aug 17 – Infidelity to the covenant is described. Our covenant with Jesus is rooted in following him who is true to our treasure.

Aug 18 – Gideon is called to bring peace to the Israelites. How difficult it is for the rich to share their blessings and experience salvation.

Aug 19 – A fable ridicules those who select an unworthy person as king. God's love far exceeds human justice.

Aug 20 – Jephthah is faithful in fulfilling his vow. All are invited to be clothed in Christ and to feast at his banquet table.

Aug 21 – Mixed marriages, in the story of the widow Naomi, are shown to be blest by God. The whole law can be summed up in one word: love.

Aug 22 – Boaz and Ruth are blessed by the Lord with a child. Let us humble ourselves and so serve one another in love.

Join us on Monday and Thursday afternoons.

PASTOR'S CORNER

As we gather here at God's invitation, we will feast at two tables: the table God's Word and the table of the Eucharist. Wisdom speaks to us in the first reading, inviting us to "advance in the way of understanding." Jesus speaks to us in the Gospel, inviting us to share in his Body and Blood. May our prayer today be that we will be nourished by both God's Word and the Eucharist, so that we may go out and do God's will in the world.

Can you not spend one hour with me?

Remember to sign in the book in the first pew.

St. Bernard Reunion

SUN, SEPT 6, 2015

All parishioners and friends of the former St. Bernard Community are invited to spend an enjoyable day reminiscing on the old parish grounds with old friends. Preliminary plans are being made to have a pork loin dinner with all the trimmings, starting at noon. Suggested donation is $10. Bring your own drinks and chairs. There is a need of a head count for those who plan to eat.
