THE LITURGICAL WEEK

Aug 30 – Through observance of the Lord's commands, we shall experience the fullness of life. Living in conformity with God's will frees us from all casuistry about good and evil. We are called to welcome God's word and to let it take root in our hearts.

Aug 31 – The dead will share in the reign of the Lord when he comes. A liturgical homily of Jesus reveals the Father's plan.

Sep 1 – Live in the light and the Day will not surprise you. Jesus has mercy and frees the man with an unclean spirit.

Sep 2 – Paul gives thanks for what the Lord has done at Colossae. Jesus witnesses gospel joy by healing the sick and diseased.

Sep 3 – The Colossians have experienced God's saving grace. The radical nature of discipleship is described.

Sep 4 – The primacy of Christ is sung in this profession of faith. Baptismal grace bespeaks rejection of sin.

Sep 5 – God has taken the initiative of saving us in the death of Christ. Jesus is revealed as "Lord even of the Sabbath".

PASTOR'S CORNER

As we gather today in God's presence, we are reminded by the scriptures of the purpose of our gathering. Our celebration is not an end in itself, but must lead to lives that respond to God's call. As Saint James says today, we are to be "doers of the word and not hearers only." May our prayer today be for the grace to respond to God's invitation with our lives.

Can you not spend one hour with me?

Remember to sign in the book in the first pew.
