THE LITURGICAL WEEK

Jan 2 – John testifies about one who is to come, one whose gift is nothing less than eternal life.

Jan 3 – All nations are invited to sing the Lord's praises for they have been called to hear the good news and worship the long awaited Messiah and King with the gift of their lives.

Jan 4 – We are called to reform our lives, to believe in Jesus Christ come in the flesh, and to pay him homage.

Jan 5 – God, the source and model of love and justice, is perfectly mirrored in the Incarnation of the Son.

Jan 6 – Those who abide in love will have no cause for fear for Jesus is God-with-us, the epiphany of divine love, who saves us when we cry out.

Jan 7 – Jesus proclaims the gratuitous love of God. Let every nation respond to this grace by keeping God's commandments.

Jan 8 – By believing in the Son of God, the leper is cured of his disease and God is praised.

PASTOR'S CORNER

Today in our Christian tradition we celebrate the Epiphany or manifestation of Christ to the whole world. An epiphany can also be a new insight or realization. Gathered together on this Sunday of the Epiphany, what new insights about our faith and our God can we discover? Let us pray to be open to what God continues to do for us in our lives.

Can you not spend one hour with me?

Remember to sign in the book in the first pew.

THANK YOU

On Behalf of Father Wayne and myself, I would like to express our thanks for all the cards and gifts we received this Christmas. I will be saying a Mass for all of you on January 18th.
