THE LITURGICAL WEEK

May 28 – Keep yourselves in the love of God, ever longing to see his power and glory. Jesus, sent by the Father, has all authority, in heaven and on earth.

May 29 – Melchizedek, priest of God Most High, offers bread and wine as a blessing upon Abram. Jesus fulfills this offering, giving us his own body and blood under the forms of bread and wine. Thus is our hunger satisfied in abundance, as we make our pilgrim way to the heavenly banquet.

May 30 – We trust in God whose grace and peace is sufficient for a life of genuine piety. Jesus is that gift of love, the stone rejected by the builders, yet the cornerstone of the structure.

May 31–With hospitality and affection, Elizabeth greets her cousin Mary, the bearer of the Mighty Savior.

June 1– Timothy is reminded to be strong, loving, and wise in serving the Lord Jesus. The resurrected state will transcend all human understanding.

June 2 – Any early liturgical hymn sings of our identification with christ's way of suffering and glory. Jesus speaks of a single fidelity: love of God and neighbor.

June 3 – Out of his abundant love for us, we have been reconciled in Christ who, like a good shepherd, seeks out those who have strayed or who are lost.

PASTOR'S CORNER

Today gives us an opportunity to reflect on our celebration of the Eucharist in a way that we may not have time for on Holy Thursday. This action is central to who we are as Christians. It defines us and builds up the Church as the Body of Christ in the world so that we can continue Jesus' mission on earth. Let us enter into this celebration giving praise and thanks to God for so great a gift.

Can you not spend one hour with me?

Remember to sign in the book in the first pew.

Thank You

We would like to extend a most sincere thanks for all of the prayers and thoughts we received during Adelyn's frightening first couple weeks of life. It is with great joy in our hearts that we are able to say she is safely at home now and is doing fantastic. The power of prayer is a magnificent thing thus we owe you all a great debt for helping to bring her home safe and sound. May God bless you all!
