THE LITURGICAL WEEK

June 11– Along with Saul, Barnabas is set apart to preach the good news to the nations. The disciple of Jesus possessed by the Spirit, bears witness to the truth.

June 12 –David acknowledges his sin and experiences the Lord's forgiveness. The sinful woman is forgiven by Jesus because of her great love. He loves us and gave himself up for us.

June 13 – The Lord delights not in the wickedness of Jezebel and Ahab. We are to offer no resistance to those who hate us.

June 14–Ahab acknowledges and repents of his sin. Jesus challenges us to love our enemies.

June 15– Elisah succeeds Elijah who is taken up into God's presence. True religion is marked by prayer, fasting, and love.

June 16 – Let us rejoice in two great prophets, Elijah and Elisha. Jesus teaches us to call God Abba, "Father"

June 17–Athaliah is overthrown by Jehoiada who renews the covenant with the Lord. Our true treasure is incorruptible.

PASTOR'S CORNER

As we continue this Jubilee Year of Mercy, today's readings proclaim the remarkable mercy and forgiveness of God. As we gather every Sunday, we pray a Penitential Act that also proclaims God's mercy and forgiveness. Let us turn to this merciful God with all our hearts now, and with gratitude pray to show such mercy to everyone else we meet.

Can you not spend one hour with me?

Remember to sign in the book in the first pew.

Thank You

We would like to sincerely thank everyone in Lindsay and surrounding area for your wonderful hospitality, thoughtfulness, and prayers for our mother and wife Judy Beckman.

This is a wonderful community and we are blessed to be a part of it.

Thank you to Fr. Jim for officiating the services and to the choir for the beautiful songs that she chose for them to sing. Thank you to everyone who set up the tables and chairs at the town hall along with all who served the lunch.

All the food, cards, and visits mean so much. She knew she was loved by all you. This kind of love is what keeps families and communities together.

The Family of Judy Beckman:

Terry and Sue Beckman and family, Denise and Pat
