THE LITURGICAL WEEK

July 9— During a vision in the temple of God's majestic holiness, Isaiah is called to be a prophet. We need only fear the one who can destroy the soul.

July 10—The law of the Lord, the great commandment of love is not something "mysterious" or "remote". Indeed, it is "very near" to us. Yet how difficult it is to fulfill, being neighbor to whoever is in need. But if we seek God, we must "go ahead and do the same" for we have been created in, for, and through Christ.

July 11— True worship is expressed by love of justice and concern for the poor. True discipleship may entail alienation, even rejection, by loved ones.

July 12—Ahaz is asked to place faith in God, his stronghold. Jesus reproaches various towns for their lack of faith.

July 13— Proud Assyria seeks to intimidate Judah, but the Lord will not forsake his people. To the lowly and humble God has been revealed.

July 14— The Lord hears the prayer of the poor as they struggle for peace and justice. In the Lord is our rest and refreshment.

July 15 — God hears Hezekiah and saves him from death. Human needs take precedence over ritual laws.

PASTOR'S CORNER

Some Sundays during this Jubilee Year of Mercy, something from the scriptures just leaps out as most appropriate. The end of today's Gospel presents one such instance. At the end of the Good Samaritan story, the answer to the question about who was neighbor to the robbers' victim is "The one who treated him with mercy." As we continue our prayer together today, let us ask for God's grace to help us to be merciful to all our neighbors.

*Can you not spend one hour with me?
Remember to sign in the book in the first pew.*

The Permanent Diaconate

Please note: There will be an information meeting on the Permanent diaconate on Sunday, July 10th, following the 9:00 am Mass. There will be a number of Permanent Deacons present to discuss the program and the work of the Permanent Deacon. All interested men and their wives are invited. We will meet after the 9:00 am Mass in the Plant Project Meeting room.
