THE LITURGICAL WEEK

July 16— Social injustice is denounced by Micha. The suffering servant seeks faith, not superficial enthusiasm.

July 17—Abraham, the just and upright man, graciously hosts three visitors. As Mary and Martha host Jesus, he speaks of only one thing as necessary for us who follow him: being open to receive the message and person of Jesus, and being receptive to the “mystery of Christ” as he comes to us through one another.

July 18— Doing the right and loving goodness is the true sacrifice of praise which Jesus, the sign of the Father, offered.

July 19—Micah proclaims God’s fidelity and forgiveness of sin. The new people of God are constituted not by blood but by obedience.

July 20— Jeremiah is called as a prophet to declare the Lord’s justice. Jesus speaks of the ways in which we receive the Word.

July 21— The Lord is the source of life, yet we turn to false gods and passing illusions. How often we listen, but do not hear.

July 22 — As a shepherd, the Lord will gather his people together. Having encountered the risen Lord, Mary Magdalene announces his resurrection to the disciples.

PASTOR'S CORNER

Often during the summer months when we travel we encounter people who offer us hospitality, whether they be family, friends, or even strangers. At our celebration today, we will hear about hospitality in the book of Genesis and in the Gospel. Today might be a good day, therefore, to reflect on and pray about how we welcome strangers and even people we know well into our midst. Are all truly welcome at this table?

Can you not spend one hour with me?

Remember to sign in the book in the first pew.

Thank you

We would like to thank everyone for your prayers for our father, Larry Beckman and our family. Our Joy is that he is with his wife, our mother, Judy Beckman in Heaven. We cannot thank you enough for investing your lives in our parents and loving them with Christ's love to encourage them to live their lives for Him.

Thank you to Fr. Jim for meeting with us and officiating the services, the choir for the music, those who set up and took down tables and chairs at the town hall, who served the lunch and donated all the salads and bars, along with all the cards and monetary donations.

May God bless you all and may you continue to seek the Lord!

Thanks! Dan, Sarah, Lauren & Blair Korth
