THE LITURGICAL WEEK

July 23—Liturgy, celebrated in God's house, can never substitute for moral justice. Jesus reveals the patience of God.

July 24—In bargaining with God, Abraham demonstrates a real persistence in prayer. Jesus invites us to persist in prayer as well, to "ask...seek...knock". May our prayer open us to God's will, and so build up his strength within us. In baptism, we have died with Christ, and have been raised to life with him.

July 25— Called as an apostle, James is the first to be struck down. Those who sow in tears will reap with joy.

July 26—"Deliver us and pardon our sins for your name's sake." Jesus explains the parable of the weeds in the field.

July 27—Doubt fills Jeremiah, but God promises to be his refuge. More precious than all possessions is the kingdom of God.

July 28— As a potter, God, who made heaven and earth, will fashion his people anew. Angels will separate the elect from the wicked.

July 29 — Jeremiah bears insults for exposing the false security of the temple cult. Martha welcomes Jesus into her home, him "who is to come into the world."

PASTOR'S CORNER

As we gather today for our weekly time of worship together, we will hear much about prayer in the readings that are proclaimed in our midst. Have we come prepared today? What has our prayer been like during the rest of the week? Perhaps today we can resolve to deepen our relationship with God through more frequent communication. Let us pray for the grace to do so.

Can you not spend one hour with me?

Remember to sign in the book in the first pew.

Thank you

The family of Bernice Kopecky would like to extend our deepest thanks to all our friends and family, for their support and kindness during our time of sorrow. The food, visits and prayers were greatly appreciated. Special thanks to Pastor Dempsey for the beautiful service, and Paul Cederlind for all your help and kind words. Thank you to Peg Patzel, the choir and Hannah Haase for the lovely music. Thank you to Stacy Chohon for the beautiful poem and thanks to the pallbearers and honorary pallbearers. We will dearly miss our beloved mom, Bernice.
