THE LITURGICAL WEEK

Aug 20—Israel's monotheism is celebrated in a new temple where the Lord dwells. There is only one God and Father of us all.

Aug 21—No one is to be excluded from the kingdom for all peoples are called to proclaim the praises of the Lord and confess his holy name. No ethnic or religious group possesses exclusive right to the kingdom. Suffering and pain are part of the human condition.

Aug 22—Paul proclaims the Lord's praises, giving thanks for his grace in Thessalonika. Beware of hypocrisy.

Aug 23—Though the Lord's coming is certain, it will be delayed. Jesus criticizes those scribes and Pharisees who place observance of tradition over the demands of love.

Aug 24—Bartholomew acclaims Jesus as Messiah and King, the Lamb of the heavenly Jerusalem.

Aug 25— Paul praises the Lord for graces bestowed upon the Corinthians. Let us remain blameless till the day of the Lord.

Aug 26— The Lord's plan entails the cross, a stumbling block and an absurdity for many. Be alert for the Lord's coming.

PASTOR'S CORNER

As we gather for today's celebration, we recall that through our Baptism God has invited us to the eternal kingdom. While the question that we hear in today's Gospel is about how many will be saved, for us the better question should be, "Will I be saved?" Let us pray today through this celebration that we might receive the grace and the will to do what God requires of us in this life.

Can you not spend one hour with me?

Remember to sign in the book in the first pew.

Father on Vacation

Fr Novotny will be gone August 31-Sept 8th.
Rev Koos Walters will cover the weekend masses.
He will be representing the Oblates of St Francis de Sales, which serve the Foreign Missions.
