THE LITURGICAL WEEK

Sept 18—Amos cries out against those who exploit the poor for the sake of extortion and greed. They seek to serve only themselves rather than the Lord. By giving ourselves to God rather than to money, we can truly pray with the blameless hands for all those in need, especially the poor whom the Lord will raise up.

Sept 19—We are to be light in the darkness, living lives marked by justice and love of neighbor.

Sept 20—Those who hear the Word and practice it constitute the family of Jesus. They do what is right and just..

Sept 21—Matthew, the tax collector, is called to be an evangelist to proclaim the good news by word and deed..

Sept 22—For Qoheleth, everything is sadly repeated in the cyclic character of life. For the psalmist, however, we experience anew each day the Lord's kindness. Herod, perplexed by Jesus, seeks to meet him.

Sept 23— The meaning of Jesus' messiahship will be revealed at the appointed time: in his surrender to the Father on the cross, in total trust.

Sept 24 — The vitality of youth is like the dawn which springs up anew but by sunset fades away. The Son of Man must suffer.

PASTOR'S CORNER

As we gather here on the Lord's Day, we will hear once again how we need to lessen our attachment to our possessions. While we can learn to use them to serve God, we must not allow ourselves become slaves to them. Jesus says, "You cannot serve both God and mammon." May our prayer today be for the grace to do what God is asking us to do.

Can you not spend one hour with me?

Remember to sign in the book in the first pew.

Thank You

Thank you for all the prayers and cards during and after my surgery.
