THE LITURGICAL WEEK

Oct 16—Through incessant prayer, we open ourselves more fully to understanding God's will. Through faith in the power of prayer, we experience God's love and assistance. Our Christian life is nourished by the scriptures we read and by our received tradition.

Oct 17—Let us serve the Lord and grow rich in his sight for we have been saved through his grace and favor.

Oct 18—Luke, a gentile companion of Paul, proclaimed the good news through his gospel making known God's kingdom of love for all, especially the lowly and the poor.

Oct 19—Paul proclaims among the nations the mystery of God's love. When the master returns, what account shall we render?

Oct 20—Be rooted in faith-filled love. By doing what is right and just, we may experience conflict, division, and rejection.

Oct 21—Cleanse your heart and be reconciled. Bear with one another and so preserve unity in the Spirit.

Oct 22—We are built into the Lord's house, the body of Christ. Full of mercy, he patiently awaits our repentance.

PASTOR'S CORNER

Today we have gathered to pray, as we do every Sunday, at the invitation of the Lord our God. It is necessary for us to do this, for without it we cannot reinforce who we are and whose we are. Jesus tells us today that our continual prayer does indeed make a difference, and that it is the one way to make sure that there will still be faith on earth when he returns. So let us pray, today and always, and pray, and pray.

Can you not spend one hour with me?

Remember to sign in the book in the first pew.
