THE LITURGICAL WEEK

Nov 20—In Hebron, David is hailed as king of all the tribes of Israel. Jesus is anointed king on the wood of his cross, a sign of paradox, of defeat yet final victory. Through his cross we have passed from darkness into the kingdom of light.

Nov 21—Those who refuse idolatry and whose hearts are clean will sing before the throne of the Lamb. The poor, too, shall inherit the kingdom of heaven.

Nov 22—War and persecution will prelude the final judgment which is likened to a harvest of the just and the impious.

Nov 23—Those who persevere shall sing a new song, the canticle of the Lamb.

Nov 24—In the final times, evil shall be put to flight and the just shall sing of the victory of the Lamb.

Nov 25—In the final resurrection, those who yearned for the Lord shall live in the new creation. The fall of Jerusalem heralds the coming of the kingdom.

Nov 26—Be vigilant, for the Son of Man is coming soon. Let us greet him with songs of joy!

PASTOR'S CORNER

Today we conclude the liturgical year and the Jubilee Year of Mercy. As we begin our celebration today, it would be good to reflect on what our merciful God has done for us. How is our world a better place because of the mercy of God that we have received and shared with our sisters and brothers?

Can you not spend one hour with me?

Remember to sign in the book in the first pew.

Welcome to the Parish

Camille Mary, daughter of Derek and Kelsey Klassen
