Catholic Charities Appeal

As we prepare to enter this Advent season, we at Catholic Charities are grateful for the generosity and giving spirit of all of our partner parishes in 2016. Whether you helped with a food drive, gave money to our Hunger Campaign or donated to one of our events or programs, know that you have shared God's mercy with our most vulnerable neighbors. During this special time of year—of the coming of our savior, Christ the Lord—as we celebrate the birth of Hope—I pray that, as you have given the gift of hope to so many this year, you may know hope and countless blessings in your life. Please prayerfully consider giving to our 2016 annual appeal, and visit ccomaha.org to donate. May we continue to work together to build God's kingdom among all of us.
