THE LITURGICAL WEEK

Feb 12—In Jesus is revealed a new wisdom, a new law, a new way of living. Happy are they who choose to keep his commandments and follow his ways.

Feb 13—Abel's murder testifies to a regressive human history, forever reversed in Jesus, the sign of the Father.

Feb 14—The flood waters destroy a decadent humanity. We are saved from death through Jesus, the bread of life.

Feb 15—Noah offers a sacrifice of praise to God for his goodness. May we always see God's blessings in our lives.

Feb 16—The Lord looks kindly upon Noah and makes a covenant with him. Peter professes his faith in Jesus.

Feb 17—If we wish to follow Christ, we must follow his way. Those who fear the Lord reject the ways of the proud.

Feb 18—The disciples seek to deepen their faith in Jesus, transfigured in glorious majesty.

PASTOR'S CORNER

Most of us can recall a time when we did only what was absolutely necessary to get by. When it comes to our Christian life, however, Jesus calls us to a higher standard. As we gather for worship today, perhaps our prayer can be for the grace and the courage to go beyond the letter of the law in order to live according to a higher law, the law of love.

Can you not spend one hour with me?

Remember to sign in the book in the first pew.

Thank You

Knights of Columbus Council 7699 wishes to thank the community and parish for supporting our annual Pancake & Sausage Breakfast. Thanks to Lindsay Cooperative Market, Melcher's Locker, Bank of Lindsay, and Lindsay Farmer's Coop for the donations of materials to make our event successful.

Thank You

A special thank you to the two young carpenters and their trusty supervisor for organizing the parish library and installing shelving, as well as organization to the supply closet.

Guild Binders

The Guild binders have been moved and are now located in the parish library behind the doors of the bookcase

Donations Needed

Any one or any business interested in donating money to purchase bottled water for the Immaculee Retreat, please leave your donation at the Lindsay Cooperative Market.

Thank you! Immaculee Committee
