THE LITURGICAL WEEK

Feb 19—Offer no resistance to one who persecutes you. Rather, love your neighbor as you love yourself. As the Lord is gracious and merciful, treat others in the same way, humbling yourself before the Lord.

Feb 20—Those who are truly wise place their faith and trust in the Lord. The decrees of God are worthy of trust indeed.

Feb 21—The Lord will help us in our trials. Those who wish to be first shall be last of all.

Feb 22—Like Jesus, the good shepherd, Peter exhorts his fellow elders to shepherd the flock. Like Peter, we are called to confess the Lordship of Jesus.

Feb 23—Turn to the Lord who watches over the way of the just. Beware of leading others astray.

Feb 24—A faithful friend delights in the statutes and wonders of the Lord. Let no one dissolve what God has joined together.

Feb 25—In the splendor of creation, the human race has been created in a covenant of love. The kingdom belongs to all God's children.

PASTOR'S CORNER

Today Jesus continues his invitation to us to go beyond the letter of the law by calling us to go beyond our human tendencies toward hatred and revenge. In a world where demands for payback and "gotcha" moments are all too common we are encouraged to lower the temperature of the rhetoric and reflect the heart of our merciful and loving God. If last year's Year of Mercy is to mean anything, we are called to continue to show God's mercy and forgiveness all through our lives.

Can you not spend one hour with me?

Remember to sign in the book in the first pew.

Thank You

We want to thank everyone for the prayers, cards, phone calls and a big thanks to everyone who went to North Platte for the wake and funeral of our son-in-law Gary Garza. It was nice to see so many that came. A Mass of thanksgiving will be said on March 12 in lieu of sending out thank you cards. God Bless you all.
