THE LITURGICAL WEEK

Apr 23—Thomas believed because he saw the risen Jesus. Although we have never seen him, we believe in him. We give thanks to the Lord for this gift of faith, especially when we gather for the breaking of the bread and the prayers.

Apr 24—Begotten of the Spirit, the disciples speak with confidence of Jesus in whom they have taken refuge.

Apr 25—A friend of Peter, Mark proclaims the goodness of the Lord manifest in Jesus, a crucified Messiah.

Apr 26—The apostles, delivered from jail, persist in preaching in the name of Jesus, God's only son.

Apr 27—The apostles confront the Sanhedrin and proclaim the testimony of the One from heaven.

Apr 28—Jesus feeds the five thousand. Fearlessly, the apostles announce his mission as the Messiah.

Apr 29—With Jesus there is peace. The apostles give thanks for the action of the Spirit in their midst.

PASTOR'S CORNER

Every year we celebrate Easter for seven weeks—a “week of weeks”—because we need all this time to appreciate all the new things that God is doing in our lives. So on this Second Sunday of Easter, which the Church has also designated as the Sunday of Divine Mercy, we focus on the early church, and how those disciples received and spread the Good News of God’s merciful love. May we learn much from them as we pray together today.

Can you not spend one hour with me?

Remember to sign in the book in the first pew
