THE LITURGICAL WEEK

June 25—You have been saved by the grace of God in the person of Jesus Christ. Hence, do not fear those who can take away your mortal life, for the Lord will protect and defend you unto life everlasting.

June 26—God calls Abram to lead a people he has chosen as his own. Before criticizing others, examine first your own heart.

June 27—We must love one another and learn to live in mutual peace and justice.

June 28—The Lord makes a covenant with Abram, promising him a great reward. You can tell a tree by its fruit.

June 29—Peter, rescued from the power of Herod, and Paul, protected from his enemies, proclaim with their lives that Jesus is the Messiah, the Son of the living God.

June 30—God blessed Abraham, promising an everlasting covenant with his posterity. A leper is cleansed by Christ, the healer.

July 1—In his mercy, the Lord remembers Sarah. In his compassion, Jesus heals the servant of the centurion.

PASTOR'S CORNER

After more than three months of Lent and Easter, we return today to Sundays in Ordinary Time. We will be hearing from the Gospel of Saint Matthew for the rest of the year, with the first reading intended to prepare us in some way for the day's Gospel. The second readings proceed through several of Saint Paul's letters. As we settle down to summer living, these next few Sundays focus on what it is like to be a disciple. Let us pray to have hearts open to what the Lord is telling us.

Can you not spend one hour with me?

Remember to sign in the book in the first pew
