THE LITURGICAL WEEK

July 16—"The seed that falls on good ground will yield a fruitful harvest." May the soil of our hearts be receptive to the Word and carry it out through the presence of the Spirit.

July 17—The Israelites in Egypt encounter oppression and genocide. Disciples may encounter alienation, even rejection, by loved ones and friends.

July 18—Rescued by God, Moses is called to deliver his own people. Jesus voices various maledictions on those who refuse to repent.

July 19—God calls Moses to lead his people out of Egypt. It is to the lowly and the humble that God is revealed.

July 20—God reveals to Moses his special mission. Jesus, humble of heart, is our refreshment and rest.

July 21—The paschal meal, the Passover of the Lord, prefigures our sacrifice of thanksgiving done in memory of Jesus, the Lord of the Sabbath.

July 22—The exodus from slavery takes place in haste, in a night of vigil for the Lord. Having encountered the risen Lord, Mary Magdalene announces his resurrection to the disciples.

PASTOR'S CORNER

We may no longer live in a society dominated by agriculture the way that ancient Israel was, but in the middle of summer we can still relate to stories about planting and growing seeds. As we gather for worship today, let us open our hearts to the images and stories we will hear, so that the seeds of God's love may take root in our lives.

Can you not spend one hour with me?

Remember to sign in the book in the first pew

Fr Jim will be on Retreat July 17-21***

Mission Coop

Please welcome our missionary from the Diocese of Rwanda next weekend. As you remember from Immaculee's presentation, Rwanda experienced a politically motivated horrific genocide in 1994 during which one million people were murdered. Since then, the Diocese of Butare has focused its outreach on the youth, teaching them unconditional love, peace and reconciliation so that the country may heal. Today, the church in Rwanda is flourishing; 60% of the country's population is Catholic and vocations are booming. Through your financial support, more Catholic schools will be built and the mission of Christ will continue to grow transform the people's lives. Please be generous in your donations.

Daycare Fundraiser

The Holy Family Daycare is planning a walking taco fundraiser for playground equipment on Monday, July 19 from 11-1 in front of the Big Red Pub.
