THE LITURGICAL WEEK

Aug 27—As Eliakim is given authority as master of the palace, so does Jesus confer upon Peter authority to bind and to loose. To Jesus, who promised to be with his Church for all time, be glory for ever and ever!

Aug 28— Paul takes delight in the Thessalonians for their faith, hope, and love. Jesus reproaches the hypocrisy of his adversaries.

Aug 29—Paul presents an apologia for his life's vocation and apostolic ministry. Like John the Baptist, may we always hold to the truth.

Aug 30—During all of his efforts in preaching the gospel, Paul experienced the guidance of the Lord. The hypocrisy of some Pharisees condemns their pious demeanor.

Aug 31—Paul is filled with joy and consoled by the Thessalonians. May our faith keep us attentive to the Lord's coming.

Sept 1—Let us rejoice in our call to holiness as we await the coming of the Bridegroom.

Sept 2— Love more completely, live with justice and equity for all. The believer is accountable to the Lord for responsible stewardship over all the interests (riches) of the kingdom.

PASTOR'S CORNER

We are called Christian because we choose to follow Jesus Christ. As we gather for worship today, it might be good to reflect on who Christ is for us, just as he asks the question in today's Gospel: "Who do you say that I am?" The answer that we give will tell us much about who we need to be in this world. Let us pray today for the grace to live up to the name of Christ with which we identify ourselves.

Can you not spend one hour with me?

Remember to sign in the book in the first pew

Fr Jim will be gone Aug 21-31
