THE LITURGICAL WEEK

Sept 3—Following the Lord means nothing less than the cross: offering ourselves with Jesus as a living sacrifice and not conforming ourselves to this world. Following him will entail derision and scorn, yet the Lord is our help.

Sept 4—The dead will share in the reign of the Lord when he comes. A liturgical homily of Jesus reveals the Father's plan.

Sept 5—Live in the light and the Day will not surprise you. Jesus has mercy and frees the man with an unclean spirit.

Sept 6—Paul gives thanks for what the Lord has done at Colossae. Jesus witnesses gospel joy by healing the sick and diseased.

Sept 7—The Colossians have experienced God's saving grace. The radical nature of discipleship is described.

Sept 8—Let us rejoice in Mary's birth, the mother of Jesus. She was predestined to give birth "by the strength of the Lord."

Sept 9—God has taken the initiative of saving us in the death of Christ. Jesus is revealed as "lord even of the Sabbath".

PASTOR'S CORNER

Today is a day of reflection for all of us who have gathered here at God's invitation. Jesus asks us what profit there is in gaining the whole world if we forfeit our life. We would do well to assess our priorities and examine whether we wish to live for ourselves or for Christ. Let us pray today for the grace to take up our cross and follow him.

Can you not spend one hour with me?

Remember to sign in the book in the first pew

Parish office will be closed Sept 4, 8 & 11th.
