THE LITURGICAL WEEK

Oct 15 –The Lord invites us to a banquet, one of the favorite images of messianic times. This banquet is spread before us and can fully satisfy our needs, yet how often have we refused the Lord's invitation to share in the riches prepared for us?

Oct 16– Jesus is the sign of God's presence, of God's salvation. He is descended from David and is the Son of God.

Oct 17–Creation bespeaks the glory of God. Our actions should bespeak an inner life rooted in the Spirit.

Oct 18–Luke, a gentile companion of Paul, proclaimed the good news through his gospel, making known God's kingdom of love for all, especially the lowly and the poor.

Oct 19—We are saved by God's gracious mercy, not by our own doing. Such a gift may be rejected, as was Jesus by many of his contemporaries.

Oct 20—"Blest are they to whom the Lord imputes no guilt". God watches over us, and so we have nothing to fear.

Oct 21- The Lord is faithful to his covenant, to Abraham and his seed. A sign of such love is the Spirit, who sustains and supports us.

PASTOR'S CORNER

God has invited us to this banquet today in order to remind us of our invitation to the heavenly banquet. We each received our invitation at our baptism. What have you done with your invitation? Have you set it aside? Lost it? Are you preparing for the banquet? Today would be a good day to rediscover our invitation to the banquet of God's kingdom, and to assess what we are doing to prepare ourselves.

Can you not spend one hour with me?

Remember to sign in the book in the first pew.

Please Note

The rectory office hours may be minimized during harvest. Feel free to email or drop messages into the pink file box in entryway. Thank you for understanding.
