THE LITURGICAL WEEK

Oct 29 –We are to love the Lord with our whole heart and our neighbor as ourselves. By thus fulfilling these two great commandments, we hope to become models of faith and imitators of the Lord who gave himself totally for our sakes.

Oct 30– We have received the Spirit of adoption and have been saved from the power of death. The Sabbath cannot set boundaries on the law of love.

Oct 31–We place our hope in the Lord who has done marvels for us, and whose kingdom shall enjoy great abundance.

Nov 1–Let us rejoice in all the men and women, blest in the eyes of the Lord who celebrate the heavenly liturgy. They stand I God's holy place and sing of the love the Father has bestowed upon them through the blood of the Lamb.

Nov 2—As suggested: the souls of the just are in God's hands. Christ, the Good Shepherd, died for us while we were still sinners. He is the resurrection and the life.

Nov 3–Paul experiences the pain of separation from his fellow Jews to whom God has revealed his covenanted love. This love must be the foundation of our lives.

Nov 4– Paul is hopeful that Israel, God's chosen people, will one day accept the gospel. Those who humble themselves will be exalted.

PASTOR'S CORNER

Interspersed throughout the Church year are Sundays that remind us that the most important thing is love---love of God, love of neighbor. Today is one of those Sundays. You know how much you want for yourself in this life. You know the way you want to be treated. That's how much you must love your neighbor, so that they can have those things and be treated that way—especially your neighbor who acts, speaks, or looks different from you. Let our prayer today be for the grace to share God's love equally and unstintingly.

Can you not spend one hour with me?

Remember to sign in the book in the first pew.

Please Note

The rectory office hours may be minimized during harvest. Feel free to email or drop messages into the pink file box in entryway. Thank you for understanding.

ATTENTION FARMERS

The Harvest season has started, with the extreme dry conditions in the fields, FIRES are inevitable. A few things to help prepare for these are:

1. Have a tractor and disc either in the field you are harvesting or close by
2. Have a fire extinguisher and/or a container of water in the combine, tractors, trucks, etc
3. If available a water wagon in the field or close by
4. If you have a fire call 911 as soon as possible

Thank you,
