THE LITURGICAL WEEK

Nov 19—Those who use their gifts and talents in the service of one another, especially the poor and the needy, are blessed indeed. They shall be known as children of the light, and will be ready for the Lord's return.

Nov 20—Antiochus IV Epiphanes seeks to introduce Hellenism into Palestine and abolish Jewish law. Many resolve to resist such oppression. Jesus heals a blind man.

Nov 21—Trusting in the Lord, Eleazar is killed, becoming a model of courage and virtue. Meeting Jesus, Zacchaeus repents of his sins.

Nov 22—Steadfast in the paths of the Lord, a mother and her sons remain faithful to the Law. By using wisely our many blessings, growth in the kingdom takes place.

Nov 23—A revolt against the Hellenists is led by Mattathias, the upright one. Jesus weeps over Jerusalem for failing to choose peace.

Nov 24—With songs of praise, the Temple is purified and rededicated in December, 164 BC (recalled annually in the Jewish feast of Hanukkah, "the feast of lights"). The Temple is to be a house of prayer.

Nov 25—Antiochus, whose army is turned back, expresses sorrow for the trials he wrought upon Jerusalem. Jesus affirms the reality of bodily resurrection.

PASTOR'S CORNER

Jesus in today's Gospel tells the parable of the three servants and how they dealt with the talents given to them. Perhaps it is just a coincidence that our word "talent", which means a gift or skill, is used in this story to refer to a very large amount of money. But the connection works for us. As we continue our prayer together today, this may be a good time to reflect on the talents that we have been given and how we have used them in the service of God's reign.

Can you not spend one hour with me?

Remember to sign in the book in the first pew.

Thank You

A big THANK YOU to Ryan Dohmen, Terry Reichmuth, Pat Wiese, John Klassen, Dick Bender, Joe Reardon, Terry Beller, Duane and Dennis Beller, Bryan Herchenbach and Randy Sueper for the use of their equipment, and their time running it to help the students and faculty pick up corn for a day. We also greatly appreciate the help from Tiffany Wiese, Amanda Busselman, Deb Sueper, and Rose Wiese for helping in the fields as well. Thank you to the kitchen ladies who were so accommodating and packed a sack lunch for everyone. The day would not have been successful without each one of you!!!
