THE LITURGICAL WEEK

Nov 26 –The Lord is our shepherd. At the end, at his coming, he will hand over the kingdom to his Father. He will “judge between one sheep and another, between rams and goats”, between those who have lived lives for others, and those who have lived for themselves.

Nov 27—Daniel is faithful to the Law and trusts in God’s power. Jesus praises a poor widow whose love is without measure.

Nov 28—Earthly kingdoms and temples will pass away, but in Christ is a kingdom whose glory and praise are eternal.

Nov 29—Handwriting on the wall bespeaks the division and loss of Belshazzar’s kingdom; persecution bespeaks our calling to patient endurance. Glory to God, our salvation and strength!

Nov 30—Called by the Lord, Andrew preaches the Lordship of Jesus. His message is heard throughout the world.

Dec 1—We give praise to God for evil is overcome by good, and his reign is everlasting. His reign is also near—it is at hand—it is in our midst

Dec 2- Be watchful in prayer to endure the appearing of the Son of Man. His kingdom is eternal and worthy of all praise.

PASTOR'S CORNER

Often when we think of Christ with his title of "King" we think about the Last Judgment. At our celebration today we will indeed hear about Christ at the end-times. Yet the purpose of our gathering here is not to become fearful about what is to come, but rather to support one another in the tasks at hand, encouraged by our good and faithful Shepherd. This way, when judgment time comes, we can be ready and rejoice over the good deeds that have built up God's kingdom.

Can you not spend one hour with me?

Remember to sign in the book in the first pew.

Thank You

We would like to give a big Thank You to all who made this year's Festival of Trees a success. A special thank you to all those who donated cash or raffle prize gifts, the roll crew for making the delicious rolls and croissants, to the Tree Committee, you did an outstanding job for organizing the tree room. Thank you to all those who decorated a tree or display. Such time and talent went into the displays. Thank you to the Holy Family school staff and students who helped with set up the gym and the various other tasks they assisted us with. Thanks to the beef donators for hamburger for the chili, thanks to all the workers who helped during the weekend, thanks to anyone who made cookies and sweet treats. Without the help of so many, we couldn't have had another successful festival! Thanks Again!!

Thank You

The family of Maynard Geilenkirchen would like to thank all the people who helped us with our two and a half years of good bye to Maynard. The very patient care givers at the home, to Fr Jim and the people who faithfully brought him communion, to friends and neighbors who brought food and drink to our home, to the American Legion, and Knights of Columbus and for the many memorials, flowers, plants and statues. To the Ladies who served the lunch and the choir for the beautiful music.
