THE LITURGICAL WEEK

Jan 21 –The Ninevites heard the preaching of Jonah and repented of their evil ways, thus experiencing the Lord's compassion. Do we repent when we hear the preaching of Jesus? Do we invest our lives in the world rather than in God's kingdom?

Jan 22—All the elders of Israel anoint David as king, so that the kingdom is no longer divided, but united.

Jan 23—For the family of Israel, Jerusalem now assumes religious significance. The family of Jesus is constituted by faith expressed in love.

Jan 24—David is assured concerning the future of his dynasty and his people. Jesus describes obstacles to hearing his message.

Jan 25—Paul is converted and becomes the apostle sent to proclaim to all the nations the saving gospel.

Jan 26—Timothy is reminded of the Spirit given him and Titus of the mission entrusted to him to proclaim the good news. The kingdom, like a seed, grows slowly to maturity.

Jan 27- May our hearts be purified and our faith strengthened by seeking the Lord's forgiveness.

PASTOR'S CORNER

Mark tells the story of the calling of the first disciples in today's Gospel. Jesus asks them to follow, to be sure, but he also tells them that they will become "fishers of men," that they will be asked to share the Good News with others. As we gather today let us think about how we share our faith with others through what we say and what we do.

*Can you not spend one hour with me?
Remember to sign in the book in the first pew.*
