THE LITURGICAL WEEK

Jan 28 –As Moses challenged the Israelites to listen to God's voice, so we are called to hear the voice of Jesus and live out his teachings by what we say and do, whatever our vocation in life may be.

Jan 29—David seeks deliverance from his enemies as the revolt by his son, Absalom, spreads. Jesus offers salvation to the Gentiles as he frees the demoniac.

Jan 30—David weeps over the death of his son. Jairus appeals to Jesus on behalf of his critically ill daughter.

Jan 31—David seeks forgiveness for his lack of faith in the Lord's power. Jesus' kindred put little faith in him.

Feb 1—David tells Solomon: be faithful to the Lord and you will be blessed. Jesus sends the Twelve to preach repentance and God's love.

Feb 2—Jesus, the King of glory, yet like us in all things, comes to his temple to be a light for all the nations.

Feb 3—Solomon prays for wisdom, to know the Lord's will. Jesus nourishes us with the word of life.

PASTOR'S CORNER

On the last two Sundays we heard Jesus calling his first disciples. Over the next three Sundays, we will hear stories of Jesus healing the sick and afflicted. He is just beginning his public ministry but as he drives out demons and heals lepers, his renown and his popularity increase quickly. In today's Gospel, Jesus drives out an unclean spirit. The people are astonished, not just at his actions, but also how he taught with such authority.

Can you not spend one hour with me?

Remember to sign in the book in the first pew.

Welcome to Our Parish
