THE LITURGICAL WEEK

Feb 4 –Job’s cry of hopelessness stands in marked contrast to the hope of those who put their trust in Jesus, who “heals the broken hearted and binds up their wounds”. Such are the blessings of the good news.

Feb 5–Solomon consecrates the temple, the resting place of the ark. All are invited to share in Messianic blessings.

Feb 6–Solomon offers praise in the house of God. How often our traditions obscure the spirit of God’s commandments.

Feb 7–The queen of Sheba acknowledges Solomon’s great wisdom. Jesus speaks of evil in the heart.

Feb 8—The Lord grew angry with Solomon whose marriages with foreigners led to idolatry. Jesus heals the daughter of a foreigner, a Syrophenician woman.

Feb 9–Jeroboam, an architect of the temple, learns of the kingdom’s approaching schism for its failure to hear God’s voice. Jesus heals the deaf and the mute.

Feb 10- Jeroboam, king of Israel, constructs two temples in which golden calves are worshipped. Jesus foreshadows the gift of the Eucharist.

PASTOR'S CORNER

Today, we continue hearing about the first days Jesus spent with his disciples, healing those who are ill or possessed by demons. When he cures Simon Peter's mother-in-law, she immediately rises and serves her guests. She may not realize it, but she is providing an example to her son-in-law and his companions. She is showing what it means to be a disciple of Jesus. The call to be Jesus' disciple is the call to serve.

Can you not spend one hour with me?

Remember to sign in the book in the first pew.
