THE LITURGICAL WEEK

Mar 4 –The law liberates and leads us to freedom. It is to be trusted for it is a source of wisdom. Jesus speaks of the ultimate freedom to be won for us by his being raised up. He is the sign of the power and wisdom of God.

Mar 5—As Elisha cured Naaman the Syrian in the waters of the Jordan, so Jesus promises healing salvation for all.

Mar 6—If we wish to follow the Lord's ways unreservedly, we must forgive one another from the heart.

Mar 7—Israel is exhorted to keep God's covenant which has been proclaimed. Jesus is the fulfillment of the Law and the prophets.

Mar 8—Return to the Lord and be one with him. Listen to his voice and obey his commands.

Mar 9—by observing the two great commandments, you will walk in the paths of the Lord.

Mar 10- It is love that the Lord desires, not sacrifice; he longs for sincerity and humility of heart.

PASTOR'S CORNER

Today is pretty much halfway between Ash Wednesday and Palm Sunday, between having ashes applied to our foreheads and waving palms in our hands. If going from dust or welcoming the Messiah only to have him put to death is all there is, then we do seem foolish, as we hear Saint Paul say today. But we know there is more. Together we make this Lenten journey, looking beyond our earthly lives.

Can you not spend one hour with me?

Remember to sign in the book in the first pew.

Card Shower

Shower Mary Catherine Beller with cards for her 80th birthday which is on March 15th. Cards can be sent to: 5201 42nd St, Columbus, NE 68601
