THE LITURGICAL WEEK

Mar 11—God pardons and raises up those who have been unfaithful, those who have loved the darkness rather than the light. For God so loved the world that he sent his only Son to deliver the world from exile.

Mar 12—The prophecy of eschatological hope finds its fulfillment in Jesus who heals and restores to life, who rescues us from death.

Mar 13—From the temple of Sion flows a stream of life-giving water, a symbol of the healing grace of baptism.

Mar 14—As the prophet proclaims God's faithful love for his people, so Jesus speaks of his union with his Father.

Mar 15—Moses, who interceded on behalf of the Israelites, will accuse all unbelievers before the Father.

Mar 16—Jesus' enemies begin to plot against him. He professes to have knowledge of God, and trusts in his love.

Mar 17—Some people wish to apprehend Jesus. Like a trusting lamb, he takes refuge in God his Father.

PASTOR'S CORNER

Today, approximately halfway through Lent, we celebrate Laetare ("Rejoice") Sunday. "Rejoice" is the first word of today's entrance antiphon, and we rejoice because we know that the love God bears for us is stronger than any trials, hardships, or sufferings we may endure, even death. We know that the sacrifice that we are building toward holds the greatest victory imaginable: our salvation.

Can you not spend one hour with me?

Remember to sign in the book in the first pew.
