THE LITURGICAL WEEK

Mar 18 –The grain of wheat must die to produce fruit. Such dying must be cultivated by obedience and by our covenant with God, rooted in love and forgiveness.

Mar 19—An heir of David and son of Joseph and Mary, Jesus brings forgiveness through the gift of faith.

Mar 20—The seraph, mounted on the pole, released those doomed to die. Jesus, lifted on high on the cross, saves us from death.

Mar 21—Through God's intervention, the three servants are set free. If we believe in Jesus, his truth will free us from sin and death.

Mar 22—God makes a covenant with Abraham, who rejoices in Jesus as I AM.

Mar 23—Denounced for blasphemy, for making himself God's equal, Jesus knows he can trust in God, his strength.

Mar 24— Jesus will establish a covenant of peace in his blood, for Jews and Gentiles alike, for all God's children.

PASTOR'S CORNER

As we enter the final weeks of Lent, we take the time to appreciate the momentousness of the events that we approach, from Jesus' triumphant entry into Jerusalem to the Last Supper to the trial and crucifixion, to his death and resurrection. Let us see this journey through the eyes of the catechumens, who will be completing their own journey of preparation and initiated into the Church as we all celebrate the rising of Jesus from the dead.

Can you not spend one hour with me?

Remember to sign in the book in the first pew.

Guild Rolls

Circle 8 will be serving rolls after the 9am Mass on March 18th.

Right to Life Collection

A second collection will be held at the weekend masses on March 17/18 to benefit our local pro-life efforts. This is in lieu of the annual Pro Life Breakfast. We feel it is important to continue with all the groups that we financially support including National Right To Life, Nebraska Right to Life, Pope Paul IV Institute, students who attend March for Life and a variety of educational outreach programs. Thank you for supporting the unborn about to be aborted.

Lindsay Coop Market Annual Meeting

Thursday, March 22 at 7:30pm
