

In recent weeks, an allegation of misconduct from the late 1980s was received by the Victim Outreach and Prevention Office of the Archdiocese of Omaha. This allegation was against Tom Sellentin, a priest who was removed from active ministry in 2002.

The Archdiocese of Omaha is committed to provide outreach for all those who have been wounded by clergy sexual misconduct. Because of the commitment, notification is being published in parish bulletins where this former priest was assigned.

Please contact Mary Beth Hanus, Manager of the Victim Outreach and Prevention Office if you have concerns about clergy sexual misconduct. She can be reached at 1-888-808-9055 or 3300 N. 60th St, Omaha, NE 68104-3402

Final Lenten Series Speaker

Please welcome Erik and Kari Hoegemeyer this Monday at 6:30pm in Holy Family church. During their engagement, they did what many "mixed" faith couples do: figure out what Christian denomination their family would be. Erik was raised in a staunch and proud Missouri Synod Lutheran family. During college, he was active in multiple evangelical Christian organizations. Kari was raised a "cradle Catholic". She attended Mass at the Newman Center and St. Mary's downtown during college in Lincoln. They made a commitment during their engagement to learn about each other's faith, and during their studies Erik was blown away by the absolute Biblical truth of Catholicism.
