THE LITURGICAL WEEK

July 1 Because of sin, sickness and death have entered the world, but are overcome through the resurrection of Jesus. He hears the cry of those in need, healing the sick and raising the dead to life. He made himself poor that we might become rich.

July 2—Amos speaks out against idolatry and social injustice. Jesus speaks of the demands of discipleship.

July 3—Our faith is built upon the apostles who saw the risen Lord and proclaimed his resurrection.

July 4—Jesus confronts the power of evil. Israel is summoned to abandon her evil ways and to seek justice for all.

July 5—Amos speaks of the judgment of the Lord, thus incurring the opposition of the royal prophets. Jesus, too, is opposed, being accused of blasphemy.

July 6—Amos condemns the hypocrisy of the rich who have strayed from the Lord, preferring empty sacrifice to mercy.

July 7—the promised restoration of God's people is fulfilled in Jesus, who heralds messianic times.

PASTOR'S CORNER

Over the next four weeks, the Gospel readings from Mark that we will hear feature Jesus and his disciples continually on the move. They are on a mission, and it is important that they travel to spread the Good News. It is also important, as we see today, that people of faith have an opportunity to encounter Jesus. It's the time of the year now when many of us will be traveling ourselves. How reassuring it is to know that no matter how far from home we are, Jesus is still with us.

Can you not spend one hour with me?

Remember to sign in the book in the first pew.

Thank You

I am so grateful that I was able to come and share about the mission that God has sent me on for the next year to serve the homeless in Denver, CO. Thank you all for your financial donations and your prayers. This mission would not be possible without your support, so thank you again for being a part of it. If you would like to hear more about Christ in the City please feel free to contact me at (402) 920-1590 or kendall@christinthecity.org. Thank you and may God bless you abundantly!

Kendall Schumacher

Thank You

Thank you to all who took the time to donate blood at our recent Blood Mobile. We collected 47 units. Thank you also to all those who donated bars and cookies.
