THE LITURGICAL WEEK

July 8—Jesus is met with misgivings and rejection by his own relatives. Like them, we often resist the prophetic word because of an obstinacy of heart, rooted in a self-pride which must give way to weakness and powerlessness.

July 9—Hosea calls Israel to return to the Lord who is kind and merciful. The needy place their faith in Jesus.

July 10—Hosea protests the spread of idolatry. Jesus prays for laborers for the harvest.

July 11—Seek justice and true worship; seek the face of the Lord. The Twelve are sent to proclaim the reign of God.

July 12—The Lord will protect us and show us mercy. God's love is to be shared as gift.

July 13—God welcomes repentance for sin. The joy of salvation is experienced even in the midst of trial and distress.

July 14—During a vision in the temple of God's majestic holiness, Isaiah is called to be a prophet. We need only fear the one who can destroy the soul.

PASTOR'S CORNER

When we gather together as a faith community to give glory to God, we expect that our experience will be similar to what it was the week before, or the week before that. Most likely this is how the faithful of Nazareth felt when they went to synagogue. Then one day, Jesus, son of Mary, a carpenter whom some may have known when he was just a boy, stood up to preach. Unlike the crowd in today's Gospel, may we be open to the Word of God entering in unexpected ways.

Can you not spend one hour with me?

Remember to sign in the book in the first pew.

Father will be gone July 9-11 and July 16-20th.
Parish office will be closed Monday, July 9th.

Mass time change

Effective August 1, weekday Mass times in Lindsay will be 8am with the exception being Wednesdays at 6:30am.

St Edward will have one weekend Mass on Saturday evening at 5pm effective August 1.
Fr Bill from Genoa will be the new pastor for St. Edward.

Thank You

Words are not enough to express my family's thanks and feelings for all the attendance and cards received at my birthday party. It was wonderful!!!! As Father Jim Novotny has often said we are (Blessed and living in PARADISE.) If only the rest of America would look at the example "The Lindsay Pivot Days" we could make the entire America great again real fast. THANK YOU!!!
