THE LITURGICAL WEEK

Aug 5—The Lord provides heavenly food for the Israelites to eat. Jesus proclaims himself to be the very bread of Life. We lay aside our way of life to be created anew in his image.

Aug 6—Transfigured in glory, the Son of Man has received kingship and dominion. He will come again in glory.

Aug 7—Israel shall be healed and restored as God's holy people. Jesus reveals his messianic power by walking on the water and healing the sick. Jesus accuses some Pharisees of being blind guides.

Aug 8—The Lord loves us with an everlasting love, and redeems us. Jesus heals the daughter of a Canaanite woman.

Aug 9—Israel shall be healed and restored as God's holy people. Jesus entrusts to Peter the keys of the kingdom of heaven.

Aug 10—Lawrence followed the Lord and served him, especially in the poor whom he cared for as a deacon in Rome.

Aug 11—The just man or woman, those who seek the Lord, will live because of faith. If we but had faith, nothing would be impossible for us.

PASTOR'S CORNER

We are nourished each Sunday when we come to Mass. We are nourished by the word of God. We are nourished by the Eucharistic meal. The people in today's readings need nourishment as well, both physically and spiritually. In the Gospel, Jesus reveals himself to be the Bread of Life, the source of everlasting sustenance. Since our hunger can always be satisfied in Jesus, we turn to him today for nourishment.

Can you not spend one hour with me?

Remember to sign in the book in the first pew.
