THE LITURGICAL WEEK

Aug 19—Wisdom has prepared a banquet of food and wine, an image expressive of God's communion with us. For those who desire life, Jesus gives his own flesh and blood. Thus we shall be filled with the Spirit.

Aug 20—The death of Ezekiel's wife is a symbol of the end of Jerusalem, the Lord's unfaithful spouse. Perfection is not a matter of keeping commandments, but of following (loving) Jesus.

Aug 21—The prince of Tyre is condemned because of insolence and greed. How difficult it is for the rich to experience salvation.

Aug 22—The Lord himself will shepherd the flock. God's love far exceeds human justice.

Aug 23—The Lord will cleanse us of our sins and place a new spirit within us. All are invited to feast at Christ's banquet.

Aug 24—Bartholomew acclaims Jesus as Messiah and King, the Lamb of the heavenly Jerusalem.

Aug 25—Israel's monotheism is celebrated in a new temple where the Lord dwells. There is only one God and Father of us all.

PASTOR'S CORNER

We gather today, as we do every Sunday, around the table of the Lord. We do so in order to receive Christ, the Bread of Life. In today's Gospel Jesus says, "Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me and I in him." How does Jesus remain in you? Can others see Christ's presence in you in the way that you act? Let us ponder these questions as we approach the table to receive Christ.

*Can you not spend one hour with me?
Remember to sign in the book in the first pew.*
