THE LITURGICAL WEEK

Sept 16—Discipleship entails denying our very selves and following the way of the Lord, a way of suffering and service. In professing our faith in him we can rely on the Lord for strength and salvation.

Sept 17—The Eucharist is to be a sign of the unity which proclaims the death of the Lord. The healing of the centurion's servant heralds the mission to the Gentiles.

Sept 18—God's holy people, though possessing differing ecclesial functions and charisms, are rooted in one and the same Spirit. Jesus manifests the inauguration of the messianic era.

Sept 19—The greatest of all gifts is love which seeks justice and right. The preaching of the Baptizer and of Jesus is met with criticism and indifference.

Sept 20—Paul proclaims the apostolic kerygma of the tradition: the death and resurrection of Christ. It is he who forgives us our sins. Let us give thanks for the Lord is good.

Sept 21—Matthew (or Levi), the tax collector, is called to be an evangelist to proclaim the good news by word and deed.

Sept 22—Paul proclaims the doctrine of the final resurrection: that which is sown rises incorruptible. Seed sown on good ground yields a harvest of eternal life.

PASTOR'S CORNER

Our faith is a consolation, but it is also a challenge. We know this intuitively, but sometimes we're not conscious of it. Our faith demands that we stand up for what we believe, and sometimes that is difficult. Our faith demands that we make sacrifices. Our faith demands that we take up our cross. Every Sunday when we walk in here we make the sign of the cross. May it remind us of what Jesus asks us to do.

*Can you not spend one hour with me?
Remember to sign in the book in the first pew.*

Prayer Requests

If you are in need of prayers and would like to be put on the request line, contact John or Rose Wiese at 402-447-6083 or 402-741-1649 and tell them your prayer need. If you would like to receive a text or be put on the phone calling list please contact them as they are updating the list.

Ladies of the Parish

We are still in need of a volunteer to fill the office of Guild 2nd Secretary-Treasurer for 2019. Currently 2 officers that have completed their 2 year terms are helping but it is unfair to expect them to continue indefinitely. Please prayerfully consider offering your time to this organization. Without volunteers the Guild cannot exist. Please contact Jean Kurtenbach, 402-920-3008, for further information.
