THE LITURGICAL WEEK

Sept 30—Moses and Jesus both attest to the fact that the work of the Spirit cannot be confined by an institution and that no one can claim a monopoly of the Spirit's charism, or wisdom. Beware of growing rich while neglecting the rights and needs of others.

Oct 1—Job probes the mystery of providence and of human suffering. Though tested, he did not sin. Even the lowliest among us is precious in God's sight.

Oct 2—Job cries out to the Lord, cursing the day of his birth. Even the lowliest among us is precious in God's sight.

Oct 3—How can a mere mortal bring proceedings against an all-knowing God whose faithfulness is from of old? Jesus speaks of the demands of discipleship.

Oct 4—Job longs to see God in the land of the living. Jesus sends forth the seventy-[two] who proclaim the reign of God.

Oct 5—The Lord is ever near us. His ways are beyond our understanding. Not all will accept the good news.

Oct 6—Job acknowledges his limited understanding when compared to God's eternal wisdom. The mystery of the Father's love is revealed to the disciples.

PASTOR'S CORNER

The grace of God is spread all over the earth. It comes to us in many ways, often through the unlikeliest of people or in the unlikeliest of situations. As we celebrate Mass today, let us reflect on how we have experienced God's grace in our lives and open ourselves to the possibility of receiving it at any time, in any place.

Can you not spend one hour with me?

Remember to sign in the book in the first pew.

Father will be gone to a workshop Oct 2 & 3

Thank You

A big "Thank You" to Donna (Ben) Pfeifer for volunteering to be Guild officer! We appreciate ALL our Guild officers for all the time and effort they put into making our parish run smoothly, and for all their financial contributions to Holy Family.

Children's Offerings

Starting October 6th your little ones can take their offerings directly up to Father and drop them in his basket. We will evaluate this process at a later date to determine its impact with the ushers during their collection.

ATTENTION FARMERS

The Harvest season has started, with the extreme dry conditions in the fields, FIRES are inevitable. A few things to help prepare for these are:

1. Have a tractor and disc either in the field you are harvesting or close by
2. Have a fire extinguisher and or a container of water in the combine, tractors, trucks etc
3. If available a water wagon in the field or close near by
4. If you have a fire call 911 as soon as possible

Thank you
