THE LITURGICAL WEEK

Oct 21—The greatness (holiness) is found in serving one another and by giving ourselves as did Jesus who suffered that we might be justified. He is our compassionate high priest in whom we have placed our hope.

Oct 22—Let us serve the Lord and grow rich in his sight for we have been saved through his grace and favor.

Oct 23—The barrier between Jews and Gentiles is dissolved. Together they form God's household in Christ who is their peace. Be vigilant for Christ's return.

Oct 24—Paul proclaims among the nations the mystery of God's love. When the master returns, what account shall we render?

Oct 25—Be rooted in faith-filled love. By doing what is right and just, we may experience conflict, division, and rejection.

Oct 26—Cleanse your heart and be reconciled. Bear with one another and so preserve unity in the Spirit.

Oct 27—We are built into the Lord's house, the body of Christ. Full of mercy, he patiently awaits our repentance.

PASTOR'S CORNER

The passage from Isaiah we hear today—of God's servant suffering for the sins of others—we also heard on Good Friday and will hear again next Good Friday. Why do we hear it now nearly halfway in between the two? Perhaps it is because we can use the reminder of what Jesus has done for us. We can also be reminded of Jesus' call to serve others. As we celebrate mass today, let us renew our commitment to bring God's word into action as we serve those who have the greatest need.

Can you not spend one hour with me?

Remember to sign in the book in the first pew.

Annual Picking/Shelling/Plowing Day
