THE LITURGICAL WEEK

Nov 11—The Lord provides for Elijah's need as the widow of Zarephath shares with him from her want. Her generosity is mirrored in the widow in the temple who gives from her poverty and not from power, privilege or excess. In Jesus, God became poor for us, offering himself to take away our sins.

Nov 12—Elders must be blameless. As with all believers, they are to avoid scandal and proclaim the forgiveness of sin.

Nov 13—Reject godless ways and do good. The demands of gospel love far exceed the claims of the Law.

Nov 14—Paul exhorts Titus to shepherd the flock. The gratuitous love of Jesus is met with gratitude and praise by only one leper.

Nov 15—Unity in the Lord must lead to forgiveness. The kingdom is not a matter of calculation, but of living in the Spirit, of securing justice for the oppressed and needy.

Nov 16—The true believer walks in the way of love as taught by Christ, the God-Man. He will come again.

Nov 17—Gaius is urged to be gracious in extending hospitality to visiting missionaries. Jesus urges perseverance in prayer.

PASTOR'S CORNER

As Thanksgiving approaches, we would do well to think about the sacrifices others have made for us. These sacrifices, material and spiritual, may well have sustained us in our needs and comforted us in our troubles. As we come together today, let us ask ourselves what sacrifices we can make for our family members, our friends, and our neighbor. What sacrifices might the Lord be asking us to make?

Can you not spend one hour with me?

Remember to sign in the book in the first pew.

Welcome to Our Parish
