THE LITURGICAL WEEK

Nov 4—The two commandments, love of God and love of neighbor go hand in hand. Through the priesthood of Jesus, we are brought into communion with the God who is love.

Nov 5—There is no room for pride within the Eucharistic assembly. Open to all, it should signify communion of mind and heart.

Nov 6—We proclaim the Lord Christ whose kenosis and exaltation Paul proclaims. All are invited to share in the riches of his banquet.

Nov 7—Act as children of God: be a light to a world filled with darkness. Discipleship entails both prudence and the renouncement of attachments.

Nov 8—True circumcision is not a matter of physical operation, but of faith in Christ Jesus. He seeks out the lost and delights in repentance. May his name be forever praised!

Nov 9—The waters flowing from the temple, the dwelling place of the Lord, bring forth life and growth. Jesus is the living sanctuary, and we his living body in the Spirit.

Nov 10—Paul expresses gratitude for sacrifices made on his behalf. Jesus warns his disciples of the dangers of greed.

PASTOR'S CORNER

This week we celebrated the twin holy days of All Saints and All Souls, bringing those who have died to the front of our minds. Focusing on them, we reflect on what is truly important in this life.

Perhaps the scribe who comes to Jesus to ask “Which is the first of all the commandments?” is thinking this way. He certainly was after Jesus told him, “You are not far from the kingdom of God.” Let us contemplate this today as we celebrate the Eucharist.

Can you not spend one hour with me?

Remember to sign in the book in the first pew.

Thank You

Carrol and Madeline Niemeyer wish to thank everyone for the cards and gifts to help us celebrate our 70th wedding anniversary, and for those who wished us well in person.
