THE LITURGICAL WEEK

Feb 2—Jesus, the King of glory, yet like us in all things, comes to his temple to be a light for all the nations.

Feb 3—"No prophet is accepted in the prophet's hometown." Thus did Jeremiah, and later, Jesus, encounter opposition and lack of faith; thus did both place their hope in the Lord. Paul speaks eloquently of the greatest of all gifts: love.

Feb 4—In Christ, the faith and hope of the chosen people has been made perfect. In Christ, the power of evil is overcome.

Feb 5—Remain faithful to the end of your pilgrimage, as did Jesus who worked miraculous healings.

Feb 6—When the Lord chastises, it is agape. Jesus' love is met with distrust, even by his own kindred.

Feb 7—Having repented of their sins, believers will be gathered around Jesus, the mediator of the new and eternal covenant. May Jesus be praised forever!

Feb 8—The Lord will never desert us for he is our light and our salvation. Though bitterly regretting it, Herod has John killed.

PASTOR'S CORNER

Expectations have a habit of tripping us up. We think we have it all figured out. We know what to expect. But then something happens to surprise us and we have to decide whether to believe it or not. Is this for real? The folks in Nazareth had expectations of their native son. This "son of Joseph" couldn't possibly be the Anointed One, could he? God has a habit of surprising us, of defying our expectations.

Can you not spend one hour with me?

Remember to sign in the book in the first pew.

Fr Jim will be gone Feb 6-20.

Thank You

The family of Bob Olmer wishes to extend their sincere thanks to friends, neighbors, and relatives since the passing of our dad. Fr. Vernon Olmer, Fr. To those who traveled from far and near to attend. Your thoughtfulness will never be forgotten. In lieu of thank yous a Mass of thanksgiving will be offered.
