THE LITURGICAL WEEK

Feb 9—Jesus, the shepherd, has pity for the crowd. In his blood the new and eternal covenant has been ratified for his sheep.

Feb 10—Isaiah, a man of unclean lips, beholds the Lord's glory in the temple and is sent on mission. Simon, a sinner, responds to the mission of Jesus by becoming a disciple. Paul, the persecutor, speaks of his call to preach nothing but Christ crucified and risen.

Feb 11— All creation is proclaimed good in the sight of God. All nations are invited to share in messianic blessings.

Feb 12— made in God's image, we, nevertheless, often judge by human standards rather than by divine commandments.

Feb 13—An ancient creation narrative is presented. Jesus speaks of evil in the heart.

Feb 14—A biblical tradition regarding the origins of human life is presented. Jesus heals the daughter of a foreigner, a Syrophonecian woman.

Feb 15—The human race is delivered from the inevitability of death and evil by Jesus, who feeds us with bread eternal.

PASTOR'S CORNER

We are called to be disciples of Jesus. It is not enough just to believe; we are asked to take up our crosses and follow him. We are challenged to make sacrifices. We are challenged to live out our faith. We are challenged to be the face of Jesus to those whom we meet. As we celebrate Mass today, let us look for ways that we can better live out our faith.

Can you not spend one hour with me?

Remember to sign in the book in the first pew.

Fr Jim will be gone Feb 6-20.
