THE LITURGICAL WEEK

Feb 16— The human race is delivered from the inevitability of death and evil by Jesus, who feeds us with bread eternal.

Feb 17— Blest are they who trust in the Lord. Blest are they who are poor and who endure insult, for their reward shall be great: eternal life.

Feb 18— In Jesus is revealed a new wisdom, a new law, a new way of living. Happy are they who choose to keep his commandments and follow his ways.

Feb 19— The flood waters destroy a decadent humanity. We are saved from death through Jesus, the bread of life.

Feb 20— Noah offers a sacrifice of praise to God for his goodness. May we always see God's blessings in our lives.

Feb 21— The Lord looks kindly upon Noah and makes a covenant with him. Peter professes his faith in Jesus.

Feb 22— Like Jesus, the good shepherd, Peter exhorts his fellow elders to shepherd the flock. Like Peter, we are called to confess the Lordship of Jesus.

PASTOR'S CORNER

Today we will hear Luke's account of the Beatitudes. Luke's version is more challenging than Matthew's, the one we usually hear. You see, Luke's "blesseds" are immediately followed by complementary "woes" that are, well, not at all complimentary. As we listen to today's Gospel, let us ponder which ones most closely apply to our lives.

Can you not spend one hour with me?

Remember to sign in the book in the first pew.

Fr Jim will be gone until Feb 20.

Thank You

Thank you to everyone who sent cards, gifts or wished me Happy Birthday. I have been blessed with a wonderful family and friends.
