THE LITURGICAL WEEK

Apr 6— Some people wish to apprehend Jesus. Like a trusting lamb, he takes refuge in God his Father.

Apr 7— To the exiles in Babylon, Isaiah foretells a new exodus, when the Lord will lead his people from captivity to freedom. True freedom is rooted in the person of Jesus, not in observance of the Law. It is he who challenges us to examine our own hearts before self-righteously judging others.

Apr 8— Justice, according to the Mosaic Law, prevails for Susanna who trusted in the Lord's goodness. Unlike the perjury of the elders, Jesus' testimony is true: he is the light of the world.

Apr 9— The seraph, mounted on the pole, released those doomed to die. Jesus, lifted high on the cross, saves us from death.

Apr 10— Through God's intervention, the three servants are set free. If we believe in Jesus, his truth will free us from sin and death.

Apr 11— God makes a covenant with Abraham, who rejoices in Jesus as I AM.

Apr 12— Denounced for blasphemy, for making himself God's equal, Jesus knows he can trust in God, his strength.

PASTOR'S CORNER

If our God were a vengeful God, who could survive? We are sinful creatures, struggling to do good in God's eyes, but often coming up short. Even now, during this penitential season, we need to seek God's mercy. Fortunately, our God is a merciful God, always ready to forgive us. As we celebrate with each other today, let us thank God for this overflowing mercy and consider those whom we ourselves need to forgive.

Can you not spend one hour with me?

Remember to sign in the book in the first pew.

Welcome to Our Parish

Welcome to our Catholic Faith and parish family
