THE LITURGICAL WEEK

May 18— Paul and Barnabas turn toward the Gentiles, and thus perform a “greater” work: proclaiming Jesus as Lord.

May 19—At the conclusion of their missionary journey, Paul and Barnabas tell the Antioch community all that the Lord had accomplished in their preaching the kingdom of God. This kingdom, to be marked by our love for one another, will reach its fulfillment in new heavens and a new earth.

May 20— Barnabas and Paul attempt to reveal to the Gentiles the true nature of the living God.

May 21— Paul and Barnabas recount their blessings to the church in Antioch, and the peace they experienced in the Lord’s service.

May 22—On their way to Jerusalem, Paul and Barnabas speak of their fruitful mission of gaining disciples for the Lord.

May 23—The situation of the Gentile converts is discussed by the Jerusalem Church whose main concern is that they live in Christ’s love.

May 24—Judas and Silas urge the Gentile Christians to accept the decision of the Church in Jerusalem, and thus live together in love, unity and peace.

PASTOR'S CORNER

It's been nearly a month since Easter Sunday, but there's a reason that we celebrate this event for so long. The Resurrection changes everything. A whole new world has been opened up to us. No wonder God says "Behold, I make all things new" in the vision from Revelation that we hear today. As we celebrate this liturgy today, let us thank and praise God for all the ways in which our lives have been made new.

Can you not spend one hour with me?

Remember to sign in the book in the first pew.

Parish office will be closed Monday, May 20th.
