Friends,

Although the words “Catholic” and “Christian” are often used interchangeably, they are not the same. Of course, all Catholics are Christians but not all Christians are Catholics, but there is one more fundamental difference from which all others differences flow. That difference is the understanding of the Eucharist. As Catholics, we believe that the bread and wine offered by the priest at Mass is truly changed into the Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity of Jesus. Although no change is perceptible to the senses, Catholics understand that this true presence of Jesus is so real that the only difference between the Jesus described in the gospels and the Jesus present in our churches is cosmetic. They don’t look the same.

This is either true or it is false. The fact that Catholics believe this to be true doesn’t make it true any more than the fact that non-Catholics disbelieve it makes it false. This change either happens or it doesn’t, which means either Catholics are right, or Catholics are wrong. There is no other alternative.

Let’s suppose we are wrong. If Jesus isn’t truly present in the Eucharist, this makes us idolaters. We genuflect entering the pew because we recognize the presence of God. We adore, worship and honor the Eucharist at Mass as if it is God. If we are wrong, we are not only idolaters, but the worst of idolaters as well. We are not only worshipping bread as if it were God, we are encouraging others to do the same. If the Catholic Church is wrong about this, then we are truly anti-Christ, and, as such, should be condemned by all Christians, including ourselves.

But, what if we are right. If Jesus truly is present in the Eucharist, maybe that makes us even worse. After all, the insensitivity we show by what we wear in Jesus’ house; how we behave in Jesus’ house; how we consume Jesus in Holy Communion no differently than if we were eating a potato chip; how we receive Jesus with hands dirtied, not from the glory of hard work, but from the filth of sin; into mouths soiled by gossip, lying, name-calling, into hearts infested with selfishness, self-centeredness and self-importance...all with no thought of confessing our unworthiness beforehand. How we receive Jesus unworthily because we know we have sinned gravely and not confessed at all is arguably worse than worshipping bread as God. How often do we give this no thought?

Of course, this insensitivity has very profound, real-world consequences. Is it really a wonder why we are so self-centered, selfish, and narcissistic in everything from the way we drive to being inconvenienced at the grocery store? We seldom see the presence of Jesus Christ in our neighbor, unless they are serving us. There’s next to no effort to love our enemy, as Jesus commands us, precisely because we can’t see the presence of Jesus in them. In short, our insensitivity to Jesus in the Eucharist makes the world more like hell where the presence of God is unseen than like heaven where God is omnipresent.

Fortunately, there is a cure...Eucharistic Adoration. Not only is this “a” cure, it is the ONLY cure. If Jesus is truly present in the Eucharist, as we claim to believe, then it is only by being in His presence that we can begin to recognize His presence. Or, to put it another way, Eucharistic Adoration is like spiritual chemotherapy. Simply being in the presence of Our Lord burns away the cancer of our selfishness and makes us more sensitive to the presence of Jesus in our world.

This is also why it is soooooo incredibly difficult for us to commit to making Eucharistic Adoration a priority. The devil knows how powerful it is. He will unleash every lie in his arsenal to prevent us from making that commitment.

The two most obvious lies are (1) we are too busy and (2) we don’t know what to do. Clearly, none of us are too busy for the things we really care about. If we really cared about spending time with the Lord, we would make the time like we would for any important family function. The uncomfortable truth is we just don’t care enough. Additionally, we all know what to do...pray. We just don’t want to do it because it would be uncomfortable, unfamiliar and we don’t want to learn. Heck, even if we went before the Lord and played on our phone it would be immensely more beneficial than playing with our phone in front of the TV.

The fact that we find these two lies so persuasive is the best sign of how important Eucharistic Adoration is. The devil is working overtime to keep this from happening in our parish. Rather than give up, we need to man up. Jesus is never outdone in generosity. One hour a week may seem like a lot, but try it for a year and see what the Lord does in return.

In Christ,

F. EIA

AS WE DO IN ASKING FOR THEM.

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL

ST. FRANCIS continued

REMEMBER IN PRAYER: Please remember in prayer the soul of Paul Charles Sueper (brother of Romaine Lubischer) who passed away last week. May his soul, and all the souls of the faithfully departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace.

WEDDING: Congratulations to Tanner Krings & Brooke Olmer who were married in our church last weekend. May the Lord bless them with many years of love and happiness together!

THANK YOU to the ladies of Circle #7 for cleaning the church last Tuesday! You did a wonderful job, and thank you for taking the time out of your busy schedule to help!

Blessings, Ann Preister, Sheila Hassenstab,
Andrea Hassenstab

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED!!

THE CAFETERIA NEEDS VOLUNTEERS to help serve lunch to the students on the following days:

- The 2nd Monday of every month
- The 2nd Tuesday of every month,
- The 2nd Wednesday of every month.

Please call Karen at the parish office if you are able to volunteer (402-923-0913).

Help WE NEED YOU

2020 PARISH BAZAAR

DELIVERIES OF MEALS: This year deliveries will be limited to the homebound and those who have no one else to deliver to them. Please call John Keller at 402-750-6425 for your meal delivery. (This phone number was incorrect last week, so if you already tried to place your order please call again to this phone number.)

A FEW CHANGES: Due to the scaled-down version of this year's bazaar, the 2020 bazaar worker list has fewer names than in the past years. Some workers have asked to be excused, some were not assigned because some usual parts of the bazaar are just not going to happen this year. If you will not be working at the bazaar for either reason, perhaps consider an additional donation beyond your requested donation.

AUCTION ITEMS ARE BEING ACCEPTED/NEEDED!: Please consider bringing in any good, sellable items to be sold at the auction. With the Covid-19 pandemic affecting this year, perhaps we can bring in some extra money for the church in this way. Call Steve Heesacker at 402-920-0475 if you would like to donate an item.

WORK CARDS CAN BE PICKED UP IN THE BACK OF CHURCH: Please take yours, and perhaps take and deliver cards to neighbors or friends who may not be able to get their own.

SEWING LADIES SELLING GOODS AT BAZAAR: From 11:00 AM to 2:00 PM the sewing ladies will be selling quilts, tied blankets, dish towels and more! Visit the east side of the church basement by going through the east doors of the church.

PARISH OFFICE WILL BE OPEN the Saturday before the bazaar, October 3, from 9:00 AM to 11:00 AM.

DOOR PRIZES FOR KIDS RUN: Donations of door prizes are needed for our Kids Run participants. If you would be willing to donate any toys, gift cards, etc., you can drop off your item(s) at the high school, grade school or parish office.

ALSO...entry forms for the Kids Run were sent home from school with students last week. Additional copies are available in the school offices. PLEASE be sure to pre-register to guarantee that your child will get their t-shirt before the race and also to avoid a last-minute rush the morning of the bazaar!

CLUSTER PARISH ANNOUNCEMENTS

CHECK OUT THIS PAGE EVERY WEEK TO SEE WHAT'S HAPPENING IN OUR PARISHES, THE SURROUNDING PARISHES, SNIPITS FROM FR. OLSEN, FR. WAYNE & MORE!

October is traditionally designated as 'Right to Life Month'. In light of the 2020 election and the Supreme Court vacancy, it seems particularly pressing to pray for our country as it wrestles with the demon of abortion. We will have special holy hours each Monday in October at 7:00 PM at the following parishes...

- October 5 - Holy Family, Lindsay,
- October 12 - St. Francis, Humphrey,
- October 19 - St. Mary's, Leigh,
- October 26 - St. Michael's, Tarnov.

Holy Hours will include exposition and benediction of the Blessed Sacrament, the Rosary, the Divine Mercy Chaplet and time for silent prayer.

Additionally, on the eve of the Election Day, Monday, November 2, adoration will be available from after Mass for All Souls at 7:00 PM to midnight at St. Francis in Humphrey. All-day adoration will take place on Election Day in Lindsay as normal.

Please take the opportunity to pray for our country during this historic time.

In Christ, Fr. EJA

WISHING A VERY BLESSED BIRTHDAY TO FR. WAYNE!

Thank you for all you do for our parishes! We are so blessed to have you here, and hope you have a wonderful & relaxing day!

TODAY IS PRIESTHOOD SUNDAY!

Remember to thank Fr. Olsen and Fr. Wayne for all the hours of hard work they put in and for their dedication to our parishes.
