Friends,

Sometimes, I think, we tend to sensationalize the bible. Don't get me wrong, I am thoroughly convinced that the stories recounted in the bible are true and happened just the way they are recounted. We must remember, however, that thousands of years of human experience are encapsulated in the relatively few pages summarized in the bible. When it seems like the only way God communicates with His people is by using angels, voices from the sky or even the tongues of fire that appear on that first Pentecost Sunday, this impression is biased. Even though God does sometimes use sensational methods to communicate with His people, most of the time, He is much subtler.

This subtlety can often leave us with the impression that God no longer speaks with us today. Nothing could be further from the truth. Simply think about how much more present Jesus is to us today than He was when He walked on this earth some 2,000 years ago. 2,000 years ago, the presence of Jesus was limited to the region of ancient Palestine. Today, on the other hand, Jesus' presence is literally everywhere. He is present in all those who believe in Him through their baptism. He is distinctively present in the person of the priest through his ordination. He is present wherever two or three are gathered in His name. He is most perfectly present in the most Holy Eucharist where the substance of bread and wine becomes the body, blood, soul and divinity of Jesus Christ.

How does this happen? Perhaps not surprisingly, it happens through the gift of the Holy Spirit. At Pentecost, the first thing Jesus asks of His heavenly Father after His Ascension into heaven is answered. It is then that the Holy Spirit, the Paraclete, is sent to us.

Now perhaps we can gain some insight into the most perplexing words that Jesus Christ ever speaks. Recall that, at the Last Supper, Jesus tells His disciples, "It is better for you that I should go." How in the world can it be better if Jesus leaves?

Well, if Jesus leaves, He will send the Holy Spirit. It seems to me that we can discern at least two reasons why this gift of the Holy Spirit is better for us than the gift of the Incarnation was for the apostles. The first comes from the gospel of St. John. In this gospel, Jesus breathes on His disciples and says, "Receive the Holy Spirit. Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained." This is the first and greatest benefit of the Holy Spirit. The Holy Spirit completes the work Jesus was sent to accomplish by giving that power to forgive sins to Jesus' apostles.

But it gets even better. Not only does this gift of the Holy Spirit take away sins, it also makes Jesus present to us today in vastly superior ways. To understand this, simply look more closely at the sacrament of the most Holy Eucharist, which we celebrate every Sunday. It is only through the power of the Holy Spirit that the presence of Jesus Christ replaces the presence of the gifts of bread and wine brought forward at the offertory. This change, however, is not perceptible to our physical eyes. It is only perceptible through the eyes of faith.

This is the crucial point. Every day the Holy Spirit confronts us with the presence of Jesus Christ, and more often than not, the Holy Spirit does so in a way that disguises Jesus' presence to our eyes. It is only by exercising our eyes of faith that we will ever be able to see the presence of Jesus that is disguised, and sometimes disguised very profoundly, in other people – people we may deem as the least of our brothers and sisters.

The exercise that strengthens our eyes of faith is the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass. At the Mass, our eyes of faith strain to see the real presence of Jesus hidden in the Eucharist. And this can be difficult because of the many distractions that take place at Mass. It is even more imperative that we help ourselves in this exercise by treating the Mass with the utmost respect and sanctity. This we do by refraining from unnecessary chatter, by singing the songs and saying the prayers, by dressing appropriately, by observing our posture reverently, and by concentrating to the best of our ability.

All of these may seem trivial, and perhaps they are. Nevertheless, they do help us recognize what is hopelessly disguised to our senses. Jesus Christ is truly present in the Eucharist. It is only when we can recognize the hidden but real presence of Jesus in the Eucharist that we will ever be able to see Jesus when He appears to us disguised as that brother or sister that we find so difficult to love.

Blessings,
